

GCC Students Selected to Perform with US Army Field Band and Chorus

Vocalist Anna Very ('12) and instrumentalist Ben Catalano ('14) were among ten Westmoreland County high school students selected to perform onstage with the US Army Field Band and Soldiers' Chorus at the Palace Theater in Greensburg on October 17, 2011. The US Army Field Band and Soldiers' Chorus are well-known as "the musical ambassadors of the Army." They have appeared in concert in all 50 states and around the world. Anna and Ben, along with the other high school students, joined the performers onstage for "The March of the US Army Field Band." After the concert, the students received certificates and personalized US Army dog tags.
