Dear Diocese of Greensburg School Families:

Today Governor Wolf announced that he is extending the stay-at-home order for families until April 30 and that the schools are closed for an indefinite amount of time. I know that this is not good news, but we must bear in mind that these decisions are made in order to keep everyone safe from infection.

Please rest assured that the faculty and administration of our schools are continuing to provide a sound, faith-based education to your children. Our Catholic schools of the Diocese of Greensburg were among the first to implement distance learning and our students have maintained an adherence to curriculum while our engaged faculty continuously provides opportunities for learning enhancement and student support.

We truly appreciate all that you are doing to support your child's at-home education as well. I encourage you to take the opportunity to look at schools' Facebook pages to see the many educational experiences that are being offered by the schools. The smiles on the children's faces will brighten your day.

To stay continuously updated with communications, recommendations and actions taken by the Diocese of Greensburg to combat the spread of the coronavirus, text "Faith" to the number 724-305-3057 to sign-up for important text message alerts. Up-to-the-minute communication is available on all diocesan social media outlets — Facebook, Twitter and Instagram — and at www.dioceseofgreensburg.org/healthalerts.

Throughout this period of uncertainty, I will keep you updated on the status of schools as we all work to make sure that our children are engaged in learning.

On behalf of Bishop Malesic, I thank you for your understanding. We will both keep you in our prayers.

Sincerely,

Dr. Maureen Marsteller
Superintendent of Catholic Schools
